Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher st., N. Y. Oldridge's Balm of Columbia. This article was first introduced into the New-York market about 20 years since, and from its superior virtues in reproducing hair when it has fallen out, keeping the head free from dandruff, (a nost loathsome article on a gentleman's coat colar.) and giving a softness and beautiful lustre unknown before to the hair, has induced some perons to get up and advertise many other articles for the same purpose, none of which stand the test of trial, professing as most of them do, to be oils of various kinds, all of which are positively injurious to the human hair. Let none be deceived, no other article will make the hair grow rapidly and of a good quality; but the Balm of Columbia, and no article purporting to be the Balm of Columbia

WEEKLY MADISONIAN, The approaching session of Congress will, doubtless, be one of great interest. It will close up some, at least, of the affairs of Mr. Van Buren's administration, and usher in the more auspicious dawn of a new and better order of things. The scenes in Congress will probably be exciting. one side we shall see the struggles of an expiring faction and on the other a triumphant party, armer with the confidence of the people, imposing judicious restraints upon the convulsive throes of their opponents, and shielding their country as far as ossible from the dangers of malignant and reckless violence, and endeavoring to avert the embarras: ments which defeated men, stnng with disappoint ment, will seek to throw in the way of the new ad ministration. On the third of March next, 12 o'clock, P. M., Mr. Van Buren's dull star will vanish, and immediately in its place shall we behold appearing the rising sun of HARRISON. On the 4h of March, General Harrison, as Presi dent of the United States, will attend in the Chan ber of the House of Representatives to take his oath of office, according to the direction of the Constitution. On his entrance, as on the entrance of Washington, and Jefferson, and Madison, the audience will not be able to stifle their disposition to Having taken his seat on the elevated chair of the Speaker of the House of Representa-tives, the Vice President, Mr. Van Buren, (if present.) and the Secretary of the Senate on his right, the Speaker and Clerk of the House of Represent tives on his left, and the Chief Justice of the U States and Associate Judges at the Clerk's table, he will proceed to deliver his inaugural speech, after which he will receive the oath of office from Mr. Taney, the 'Chief Justice." He will then retire and such huzzas will go up from the multitude around the Capitol as have never been heard.

Such will be among the interesting incidents which will occupy the columns of the weekly Madisonian. The paper will contain leading speeches, spirited sketches of the debates, and summary of the results of the proceedings of Congress, togeth er with the general and political news of the day will contain the official returns of the vote in the Electoral Colleges for President, which will be opened in the presence of Congress, and the Inaugural Address of the President. This will include the time comprehended between the opening of Con-gress in December, and its adjournment on the 4th of March. Subscription price for this period FIFTY CENTS. Terms cash, in advance.
